

Monday Prayer

To the rhythm of Congo

Video of gratitude: The treasure of Senegal

To keep an ear out
To others' cry of pain
And to hear their call for help
That's solidarity

To keep a watchful eye at all times
And your gaze looking out to sea
In search of a castaway in danger
That's solidarity

To empathize with the suffering
Of all our brothers, wherever they may come from
To accept as your own the anguish of the poor
That's solidarity

To become the voice of the poor,
To bring light to injustice and the wickedness,
To denounce those who are unjust and wicked
That's solidarity

To be carried away by a message
Filled with hope, love and peace,
Until you reach the brother's grasp
That's solidarity

To give our lives in the name of love
It is the greatest proof of friendship:
It is to live and die with Jesus Christ.
That's solidarity
